The following dream showed up in my newsfeed one day and so closely aligns to the feelings of my own heart, I wanted to share it as evidence of the Spirit that is acting on hearts of women all around the world. This contribution comes from Lana Vawser of Australia.

“Last night I had a dream and in my dream, I heard the voice of the Lord booming with such authority, expectancy and destiny. He said, “I am raising up a company of women with fire in their bellies.” Followed straight after that I heard the Lord decreeing Isaiah 60:1:

“Arise, shine, for your light has come, and the glory of the Lord rises upon you.”

A new day is upon women right now!

This week when I saw the women’s march that took place in Washington DC, something stirred in me. I was deeply grieved to hear and see what took place, but in the midst of it all, I felt the Lord quickening me to ‘pay attention’ to it. This was a very clear example of the “fire in the bellies’ of women to stand in conviction and passion for what they believe in. While this protest was one of division and lack of honour for President Trump, the Lord quickened to me that He is raising up women now who know Him, modern day Esthers, Deborah’s Mary’s to stand with passion and conviction on their platform of influence. He is awakening women and making their voice loud to bring change, life, stand for righteousness and see incredible visitations of His Glory. What happened this week I believe was an archetype of what God is doing. Where an ‘uprising of women’ brought division and lacked fruit of integrity and righteousness, the uprising and awakening of women who know Him by His Spirit will bring sudden breakthroughs, life and freedom. Fruits of holiness, unity, righteousness and peace will be evident.

We are beginning to see and about to see in great acceleration the rising up of women filled with the courage of heaven. Completely fearless, filled with passion and determination and no longer running from the enemy, but eyeballing him and going into his territory and taking ground back.

This large company of women He is raising up, who know Him and His heart, who carry His fire are about to meet new doors of influence in their lives to release His fire.

The Lord has begun and it will continue to increase, to birth messages within women. These messages are life messages that the Lord has given them. Women are finding their voice again in this season as they seek Him. The messages are going to be birthed in books, cds, music, art, relationships, in mothering, in teaching.

As Mary sitting at His feet, These women have simply made Christ their first delight, their first love. Where their top priority has been to know Him, He is now positioning them as Esthers. I saw the Lord moving pieces around on a chessboard and I saw Him strategically placing women in places of significant influence in this season. It wasn’t happening slowly, it was happening suddenly. One day, things look one way, the next day, there’s been a complete shift and change and a miraculous positioning has taken place.

I saw a tidal wave of creativity crashing in on women in this season. Chains that have held many women down from knowing who they are and what they were created to do, and how to express that creativity of heaven, it's being broken. God is awakening creativity in women. Watch and see women who know Him being positioned in greater positions of influence in areas of creativity to begin to lead the world in the creativity of heaven.

It's an exciting time! The Lord is raising up a large company of women with fire in their bellies that are going to bring incredible shift and change by the Spirit of God in the world."

Do you feel it? I do.
